INAUGURAL

Registration and Abstract Submission are Now Open!

SOUTHERN PLAINS RESPIRATORY & INFECTIOUS DISEASES SYMPOSIUM (SPRIDS)

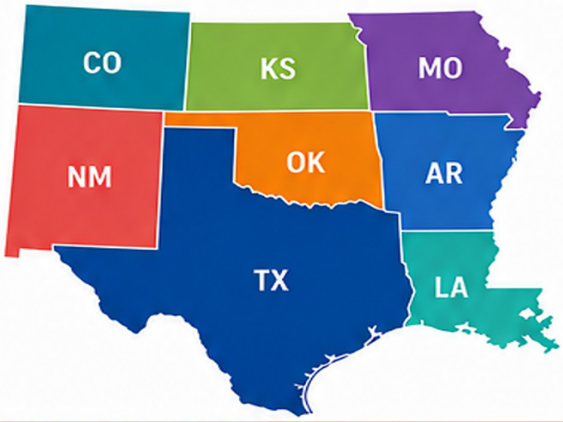

APRIL 6–7, 2027

Student Union Ballroom,
Oklahoma State University | Stillwater, Oklahoma

CONNECTING THE SOUTHERN PLAINS THROUGH RESEARCH

Building on the 13-year success of the Oklahoma Respiratory and Infectious Diseases Research Symposium, SPRIDS brings together researchers, clinicians, and trainees from Oklahoma and neighboring states, including Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, New Mexico, and Texas, to share discoveries, exchange ideas, foster collaborations, and advance respiratory and infectious disease research across the region.

SCIENTIFIC SESSIONS

1. Host-Pathogen Interactions
2. Immune Response to Pathogens
3. Pathogenesis
4. Infection-Associated Illnesses and Chronic Diseases

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Adolfo García-Sastre, PhD
  Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai
- Christina Stallings, PhD
  Washington University
- Homer L. Twigg III, M.D.
  Indiana University
- Jay Vyas, MD, PhD
  Columbia University Irving Medical Center

Trainee Sessions
Poster Presentations, Trainee Flash Talks, Abstract Competitions, Career Development

Advanced Technologies & Shared Resources

Networking & Collaboration

Trainee Travel Awards

ORGANIZERS

- Lin Liu, Ph.D., FAPS (CVM, OSU)
- Jordan Metcalf, M.D. (OUHSC)
- Tom Oomens, Ph.D. (CVM, OSU)
- Karen Wozniak, Ph.D. (CAS, OSU)

OCRID
OKLAHOMA CENTER FOR RESPIRATORY AND INFECTIOUS DISEASES

For Registration, Abstract submission and more info, please visit:
ocrid.okstate.edu/sprids